DUMP GROUND TO BE VIEWED BY COMMITTEE

CITY COUNCIL HAS REGULAR MEETING AT CITY HALL
TUESDAY NIGHT

PERMITS ARE GRANTED

W. E. Pickens Granted $15,000 Certificate
For Work Completed On Downtown Project.

Greencastle's unsolved dump problem was placed in the hands of the city committee of the city council Tuesday night at the regular meeting by Mayor W. L. Larkin. This committee, composed of W. E. Pickens, Beamer Havens and Lawrence Snider, will view a proposed site for a city dump at the Albert Snider farm, west of Limesdale, and report its recommendations to Mayor Larkin and the council.

Council members also discussed the present dumping of city refuse at the Stiles Handle factory and the Charles Bird lot and indicated they would ask that dumping at these places be stopped because of conditions which might arise. It was noted that an open ditch and drain at the respective places might eventually be stopped by rubbish.

W. E. Pickens and O. J. Larkin, contractors who completed the nine-block downtown paving project in record time, were allowed a certificate of $15,000 for work completed on the improvement. It was stated that the certificate did not involve actual transfer of money but was a matter of credit. Total cost of the improvement will be about $21,000, city engineer Vernon Heath stated. Only one catch basin remained to be installed before the work was completed outside of some additional cleaning it was said.

James Moran, street commissioner, was asked to inspect a tile sewer which was reported by Mrs. Flossie Townsend, colored, to be letting water seep into her basement on south Indiana street. Mrs. Townsend claimed that joints of the tile which run under her house, were not tight. The street commissioner also was asked to probe sewer conditions in the vicinity of the home of Mrs. L. D. Snider on north Madison street.

The question of arranging for stop and go signals on Washington street at its intersection with Indiana and Jackson streets, was referred to the public utilities committee composed of Beamer Havens, Otis Gardner and O. J. Larkin. Mayor Denman wanted electric conduits laid before Washington street is paved by the state so that they would be in place in event it is decided later to put stop and go signs at the two corners.

Some discussion of the promiscuous dumping of city sewers also was had but no action of any kind was taken.

W. R. Sherman was given permission to repair the roof of his home at 610 Highwood avenue, Northwood; Lee Masten was given a permit to tear down and rebuild a garage at Locust and Ohio streets; Mary E. Mauney was given permission to tear down a garage at 1105 Putnamville road, and James E. Cannon was allowed to repair and reroof his home on Blooming street, recently damaged by fire.

Allowing of claims was another item disposed of by the councilmen.

FRED W. ELLIOTT FATALLY HURT LATE TUESDAY

FORMER FILLMORE MAN BURIED
UNDER TONS OF DEBRIS
AT INDIANAPOLIS

CAUGHT IN BLDG. COLLAPSE

Eight Other Persons Injured When
Two-Story Brewery Structure Falls In.

Fred W. Elliott, 57 years old, a former Fillmore man, was killed, and eight others were injured, when the roof and concrete floors of the two-story cold storage building of the Richard Lieber Brewing Corporation collapsed in Indianapolis late Tuesday afternoon.

Elliott, who lived at 2003 North Harding street, a carpenter working on the second floor of the building which was being remodeled, was caught in the fall of tons of debris and buried.

His body was recovered two hours later in the basement of the building. Other workmen, warned of impending danger as the building trembled just before the collapse, fled toward safety, but were too late to escape the rain of cinder blocks from the refrigerator roof and concrete floor. All but Elliott, however, escaped with abrasions and lacerations.

Elliott was born and reared in Fillmore but went to Indianapolis shortly after his marriage to Claudy Heady of the east Putnam town. He is survived by the widow, a daughter, Mrs. Maxine Liebtage; and a son, Byron Elliott. His mother, Mrs. Mary Elliott, a sister, Miss Iva Elliott, and a brother, Jess Elliott, all live at Fillmore; while four other brothers live in Indianapolis.

Dr. Hutcheson Is Rotary Head

ANNUAL ELECTION HELD WEDNESDAY. BOSTON IS NAMED VICE PRESIDENT

The annual election of officers of the Rotary club was held Wednesday noon, and Dr. W. R. Hutcheson, a charter member of the club, was named president for the coming year.

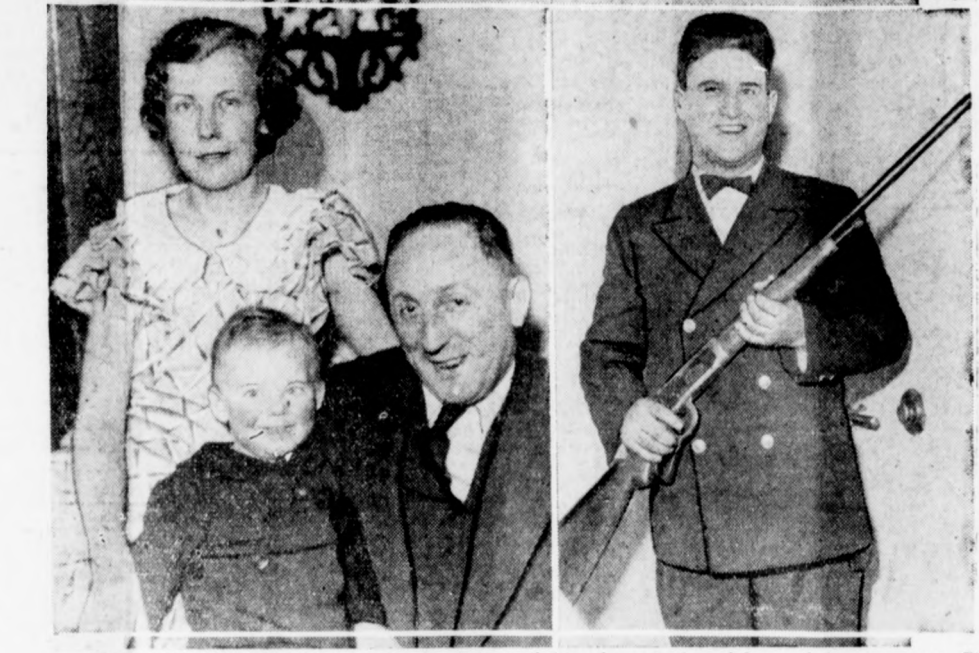

Other officers elected were the following: Vice-president, Paul F. Boston. Secretary, Jake Eitel. Treasurer, Frank Schoenman. Sergeant-at-Arms, John Etter. Directors, E. R. Bartlett and L. L. Porter.

Ralph Howard, superintendent of the Indiana state farm, was the guest speaker. He told of the opening of the farm on April 12, 20 years ago, and said 394 prisoners have been sent to the farm from Putnam county. This is an average of 20 men a year. The total population of the farm since its opening has passed the 65,000 mark. Today there are about 900 inmates, and 114 of them have been transferred from Pendleton.

Mr. Howard said the men are working to produce stuff for the state as the prison code is being followed to the letter and but very little material is being sold on the open market. He spoke of the new slaughtering equipment installed at the farm and said it might be possible in the near future to supply all state institutions with fresh or cured meats. If this comes, it will make a home market for livestock.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mollie Hollingsworth who died Saturday, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Walnut Chapel church, East of Belle Union. The Rev. V. L. Raphael of Greencastle, the Rev. Ernest Kivett were in charge. Interment was in the Stilesville cemetery.

Alpha Omicron Pi To Retain House

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO SETTLE PROCEEDINGS BEGUN
BY LOCAL BONDHOLDER

That the local chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will not lose its house despite the foreclosure proceedings started by a bondholder and that the house will be in better financial condition in the future, as the result of refinancing, was revealed this afternoon by Elizabeth Gadiant, president of the chapter.

"Our national organization is taking care of all foreclosure proceedings," Miss Gadiant told The DePauw. "We expect our grand president, Mrs. Edith Huntington Anderson, to arrive here early in May and she will settle all financial difficulties then."

"Contrary to reports started last Saturday," Miss Gadiant declared, "we are not going to lose our house. The reason for the non-payment of the bonds of the Theta chapter of the Alpha Omicron Pi House association is due to the refinancing of the organization which is now taking place. Mrs. Helen St. Claire Mullan, of New York City, who is trustee of the anniversary endowment fund, is in charge of the refinancing proceedings."

Only one of the numerous bondholders has taken any action of foreclosure. Everett W. Hunter in a suit filed in the Putnam county circuit court asks foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate owned by Theta chapter of Alpha Omicron House association. He is the owner of bonds issued by the association which he alleges are overdue and unpaid.

Hunter alleges he is the owner of two $500 bonds and one $1,000 bond, interest on which is past due and unpaid. He further alleges that by terms of the mortgage all of the mortgage indebtedness of $55,000 becomes due and collectable by reason of the unpaid interest on his bonds.

Defendants named in the action are Theta Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi House association, the People's State bank, trustee, of Indianapolis, the Ostrom Realty and Construction company, and Theta chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Murder Suspect Caught In Ohio

"RED" GIBBERSON ESCAPED FROM NOBLESVILLE JAIL,
AWAITING TRIAL

BULLETIN

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25. (UP)—Gov. Paul V. McNutt today signed extradition papers for the return of Ernest (Red) Gibberson, murder suspect who was captured in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Indianapolis police left immediately for the Ohio city to return the prisoner.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25. (UP)—Ernest (Red) Gibberson, murder suspect who walked out of the Hamilton county jail Feb. 9, disguised as a CWA worker, was captured today at Cincinnati, O., Detective Chief Fred Simon of the Indianapolis police was advised.

Gibberson was awaiting trial at Noblesville on charges of murdering Lester Jones, Indianapolis police sergeant, during a holdup more than a year ago.

Simon was told that Gibberson was arrested by ten Cincinnati policemen in a rooming house. One gun was found in his room.

Gibberson had dyed his hair brown and until recently had been living in the fashionable Walnut Hill section of Cincinnati.

Gibberson was believed a member of a gang which killed Sergeant Jones during a machine gun holdup of a bus company garage here.

The gang was captured near Lexington, Ky. Two have been convicted and sentenced and two others are awaiting trial.

Gibberson's escape received national wide publicity because of numerous other escapes from Indiana jails, notably by members of the John Dillinger convict gang.

A bar in Gibberson's cell was found to have been sawed, enabling him to walk out under the disguise of being one of several CWA workers who were repairing the interior of the Noblesville jail.

Mrs. Harriet Bard Is H. S. Speaker

CONNEERSVILLE WOMAN MAKES
SECOND APPEARANCE
THIS YEAR

Mrs. Harriet Bard of Connersville, gave a most thought provoking review of Vera Brittain's "Testament of Youth," before the high school assembly Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

"The Testament of Youth" is an autobiography of a young Englishwoman who left Oxford university to become a nurse during the World war. The book graphically describes the horrors and heartbreaks of war.

Mrs. Bard used the book review as an opportunity to appeal to the young people for a consciousness of international peace by showing them that war does not have the glamour that is frequently painted but brings only horror, bloodshed, and misery.

Mrs. Bard was the guest of the Book club and it was her second appearance at the Greencastle high school this year.

POLICE FAIL TO FIND TRACE OF DILLINGER

INDIANA OUTLAW ELUDES
WIDESPREAD SEARCHING

THREE WOMEN QUESTIONED

Companions Of Gangsters At Wisconsin Tavern Give Names Believed Fictitious To Agents.

BULLETIN

MINNEAPOLIS, April 25. (UP)—Twin City police and deputy sheriffs today closed in on two automobiles, one of them answering the description of the Ford sedan taken by Dillinger gangsters at South St. Paul Monday, according to police radio bulletins here.

A concentration of police squad cars was ordered. Two St. Paul squad cars were ordered to the scene in addition to the Minneapolis squad cars.

MADISON, Wis., April 25. (UP)—Department of justice agents today sifted through a mass of prospective tips and clues in their hunt for John Dillinger, notorious machine gunner, and his gang of desperadoes.

Seeking to avenge the outlaw's brazen defiance of the law with machine gun and wooden pistol, the federal agents questioned three women, whom the gang deserted after clashing with agents near Eagle River, Wis., Sunday night.

Agents drew a story from one of the girls of a broken honeymoon which she said she was spending at the northern Wisconsin lake resort where two men were killed and four wounded in the clash.

The girls gave their names as Marian Narr, Ann Southern and Rose Ancker, all of Chicago. Miss Narr said she had been married a few days ago to one of the gangsters but refused to reveal which one.

Chicago authorities said they believed the names were fictitious. They warned police to be on the lookout for Dillinger, John Hamilton, Homer Van Meter, George Nelson and Tommy Carroll. The first three are former Indiana convicts. Nelson is an escaped Illinois bank robber and Touhy gangster and Carroll is a St. Paul gangster.

The federal men held their plans and possible discoveries secret, but Wisconsin, Minnesota and Indiana authorities responded to new tips with feverish searching activities.

Parties of heavily armed men searched the northern Wisconsin lake region near Eagle River for possible hiding places for the gang, which they believe has separated.

The hunt for a dark maroon colored sedan in which Dillinger and at least two of his followers were believed to have escaped from the federal trap in Wisconsin was being hunted in Indiana as the result of several reports of it being sighted at Muncie, Ind.

In Minnesota, investigation went to Rochester where Sheriff George Geinatt held a large Lincoln automobile which he said two men and a woman had stored in a private garage for future use. Geinatt believed the automobile had been "planted" by Dillinger for use in the event he needed to change automobiles. The car had been stolen in Chicago.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 25. (UP)—Reports that John Dillinger and three associates had been sighted in Indiana late Tuesday, enroute toward Ohio, caused apprehension in Columbus where three lieutenants of the desperado are held in Ohio penitentiary.

The state patrol radio broadcast reports that a car believed to carry Dillinger had been seen speeding through Muncie, Ind.

Prison officials here pointed out that extra guards had been assigned when Harry Pierpont, Charles Makley and Russell Clark, convicted of slaying an Ohio sheriff in liberating Dillinger from the county jail at Lima, were committed. A Dillinger attack on the penitentiary, where Pierpont and Makley are to be electrocuted in July, was considered out of the question.

ANOTHER TRUSTY ESCAPES

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., April 25. (UP)—Another trusty walked away from the state prison last night, making the fifth to escape since April 21, Warden Louis E. Kunkel revealed today.

The prisoner, Herman Williams, 50, negro, was last seen in front of the prison gate at 7:30 p. m.

PRESIDENT ENDORSES BILL

WASHINGTON, April 25, (UP)—President Roosevelt has thrown his support behind the drive for unemployment insurance legislation this session of congress, it was learned today.

Rep. David J. Lewis, D., Md., co-author of the Wagner-Lewis unemployment insurance bill, said the president in a personal letter to him "asked that I do all in my power to get action this session."

Several weeks ago Mr. Roosevelt backed the bill in principle in a letter to Chairman Robert L. Doughton of the house ways and means committee. Until today it had been assumed the president was willing to have the measure sidetracked so that adjournment could be speeded.

The measure is considered a key-stone in the "new deal" program for permanent safeguards against depression suffering. It provides for a five per cent excise tax on the pay rolls of all industrial employers, calculated to establish a $1,000,000,000 annual reserve for unemployment insurance purposes.

Employers contributing under state unemployment insurance laws would obtain credits against the excise tax. A house ways and means subcommittee may favorably report the measure to the full committee today. A poll indicated that the bill probably would be revised to provide for a three per cent tax, instead of five. Lewis favored the change.

The main object of the year was sponsoring purchase of additional playgrounds for the school. At the suggestion of P. T. A. the school board purchased half acre of ground which will be the children's place to play in the school building, away from highway.

Besides the regular monthly meetings the P. T. A. sponsored a given by a number of young people of the community. The play, "Prairie Rose," was very successful. The program committee made much musical and dramatic talent to the community.

Towards the end of the year school children held a paper sale benefit for the orchestra and a sum was realized for the purchase of new music.

The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. J. S. Satter; vice-president, Guy Shepherd; secretary, Mrs. Helen Fuller, and treasurer, Mrs. Mary Poff. The teachers, Miss Pickett and Miss Old, also will return next year. (Continued on Page Four)

Dr. Oxniam Speaker For Chapel Service

DR. LONGDEN DEADS DEVOTIONAL READING AND DEPAW CHOIR FURNISH MUSIC

"Like an endless caravan traversing a limitless desert the succeeding generations of man have pressed on," said President G. Bromley Oxniam at devotional chapel Wednesday morning.

The instinctive quest for ultimate explanation well nigh blinded at times by the swirling sands of speculation, but sustained by a strange sense of dependence upon something not ourselves, strengthened by a belief in a supreme power that reveals itself in nature and in human experience.

Man has sought to describe that something not himself. But for me it is not the rationalizing of the forces that play upon me, the definition of the powers that be nor the creation of a scheme of reference into which the baffling pieces of the puzzle may fit—in a word, it is not the contribution of the theologian that satisfies, it is rather in the institution of the poet that I find the answer to the soul's sincere desire. For the poet, God is, as he was for Jesus.

"When we come at last to know the one not ourselves, we learn to know friends we knew not. We are indeed given seats in homes not our own. The distance becomes nearer and the stranger, brother. We find the old in the new, and the Eternal One everywhere. No door is shut, alien there is none. Forever we find the touch of His hand upon the shoulder, and possess a sure sense that He is with us and we with Him. We are at one with the universe. The divided personality is united, the inner war is over. It is indeed peace, the gift of God's love. Knowing him Life becomes affirmation not a renunciation."

Music was furnished by the DePaw Choir under Dean R. G. McCutchan with Prof. Vandeman Thompson at the organ. The devotional reading was led by Dr. Henry B. Longden.

PHILLIPS declined to comment upon his conference with Saito. The latter said, following the interview, that press accounts of Japan's "hands off China" policy substantially reflected the fundamentals upon which Japan was prepared to stand. He assured Phillips that Japan had no intention or desire to violate her obligations under the nine power treaty, nor to "close entirely" the so-called "open door" in China.

TAXED WHEN 'GHOST WALKED'

OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—Unpaid for three months because of lack of funds, Douglas County employees were indignant when Assessor Greenleaf deducted $3.50 per $100 from each pay check when the "ghost" finally did walk. Greenleaf explained that under Nebraska's tangible tax law, a return must be made on unpaid salary due on April 1. All officials as well as workers were required to pay the tax.

Putnam Youth On Trial At Brazil

JUDGE BAUMUNK DELIVERS WARNING TO DRIVERS ABOUT DRINKING

BRAZIL, Ind., April 25—Although not committing himself in the case of the State vs. Morris McCullough other than to remark that "this young man's evidence just about convinces me that he is guilty," Judge John W. Baumunk, speaking from the bench, made plain his official attitude toward persons guilty of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

"I think that driving an automobile while intoxicated is just about one of the worst crimes in the category. Innocent parties are made to suffer. Persons who know they are to drive automobiles on public highways should leave liquor alone," Judge Baumunk remarked.

The case on trial was that against Morris McCullough, a 23 year old Putnam county youth, who was arrested on the affidavit of Edward Watson, of New Goshen, Ind., following an accident on the National road near Camp Courtesy, Feb. 17th. A Chevrolet car driven by young McCullough of Reelsville skidded on an ice covered pavement and crashed into another car driven by Mr. Watson. The latter's car also contained his wife and two small children, but fortunately none was hurt. The wrecked cars also got in the path of a commercial truck driven by Thomas Halzyska, of McKeysport, Pa., and another truck from out of the state causing other wrecks. Traffic on the highway was blocked.

The state's witnesses testified that young McCullough was intoxicated, causing the accident. Witnesses for the defendant, including Sheriff Frank Goble, who interviewed McCullough soon after the accident, said they noticed no evidence of his having been drinking. The highway was slick with ice and snow at the time. Judge Baumunk took the case under advisement.

GIVES POLL TAX RULING

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25 (UP)—Indiana taxpayers who pay poll taxes in order to obtain automobile and drivers' licenses but allow property and personal taxes to become delinquent are within the law, Atty. Gen. Philip Lutz Jr., ruled today. In an opinion to Harry E. McClain, state insurance commissioner, Lutz said that county treasurers must receive poll taxes when proffered and cannot insist upon simultaneous payment of property and personal assessments.

McClain said he had been asked by many county treasurers whether they could refuse to accept the poll tax payments to be earmarked as such instead of being applied to property taxes.

A. A. U. W. Holds Interesting Meeting

Members of the Greencastle branch of the American Association of University Women held their final meeting of the year 1933-34, Tuesday evening at the Delta Zeta house.

Group and committee chairman gave reports covering the past year's work and activities, the treasurer's report was given and all business for the past month concluded. At the close of the business meeting, Miss Veneta Kunter, retiring president, turned the meeting over to Miss Helen Salzer, recently elected president for the coming year.

Miss Salzer announced the chairman of several groups and committees for next year, then introduced Prof. Jervis M. Fulmer, who talked on some recent changes in Turkey. Dr. Fulmer gave a short history of the founding of Roberts college at Istanbul, Turkey, where he taught for four years, and mentioned among other changes having taken place more or less recently the adoption of an alphabet somewhat similar to ours, with the exception of the omission of the letter "x." Formerly the Turkish alphabet consisted of 462 characters. Now it contains fewer letters than our own.

The formation of unions and the abolishment of veils for women were noted by Dr. Fulmer during his stay in Turkey. Toward the close of his talk Dr. Fulmer showed a number of pictures of Roberts college, of the students and of Istanbul, which were taken while he was there.

I respectfully solicit your vote in the Democratic Primary, May 8.

The way tobacco is cut has a lot to do with the way Chesterfield burns and tastes

There are many different ways of cutting tobacco.

A long time ago, it used to be cut on what was known as a Pease Cutter, but this darkened the tobacco, and it was not uniform.

The cutters today are the most improved, modern, up-to-the-minute type. They cut uniformly, and cut in long shreds.

The tobacco in Chesterfield is cut right—you can judge for yourself how Chesterfields burn and how they taste.

SANDERS TO RESIGN

WASHINGTON, April 25.—ett Sanders, chairman of the clean national committee, resigned last night in anticipation of a meeting here to consider his resignation.

Sanders, who chaired a publican organization during Hoover-Roosevelt campaign, in poor health and was reported that he would not be able to turn to political activity in time to come.

Intimate friends of the chairman said Sanders also received 24 replies to his asking members of the national committee to gather in the near future in Washington.

All the answers in hand were described as expressing a desire to follow the present wishes.

The move by Sanders is connected in any way with the anti-Sanders Republican Members of this bloc planned Sanders to call a meeting of the committee to effect a reorganization.

This group has obtained the signatures required to force a committee call, but was reported as refrained from forcing the cause of inability to agree on a new leader. This was some and it was said similar efforts had been withheld because of Sanders' health.

Sanders was taken ill several days ago while enroute west and was carried from his train at Pittsburg. He was critically ill for some few days ago he was brought to Washington, but is still under care, due to complications.

If the national committee with Sanders' views, a lively is in prospect for the chairman.

Among those mentioned as possibilities are Henry P. Fries, Pennsylvania, former ambassador to Italy; former Senator James H. Easton of Indiana and Walter H. H. of West Virginia. A large were favorable to Frank K. publisher of the Chicago Daily News, he has unequivocally refused to consider the possibility because of desire to devote his whole time to newspaper.

70 MILLIONS IN GOLD

TORONTO, Ont. (UP)—will contribute approximately 900,000 of the $100,000,000 production predicted for Canada 1934, according to Charles H. Minister of Mines. McKee said he expected great development in the present year following increase in the price of gold. He said, would develop old mines which before could not be operated at a profit.
